

Open Call: LatinX Community Tables

Deadline to Apply: May 2nd

Spots Available: Up to 6 artists

Stipend: $50 + a space in the Art Booth

We're inviting artists to submit their concepts for transforming picnic tables into bold, interactive art pieces inspired by the LatinX Pride Diaspora. These tables will be placed throughout the event space to spark reflection and community connection. You bring the vision, we'll provide the table and a space in our art booth to showcase your work.

What You Provide:

- An initial concept or sketch (theme, style, materials) for one picnic table emphasizing the LatinX Diaspora
- Ability to paint or decorate a picnic table during or before the event

What We Provide:

- One picnic table (24"-34" high)
- A $50 stipend
- Be featured with a space in our community artist booth during LatinX Pride

Submission Requirements:

- Sketches W/ Color Palet for Table designs
- Photos of 1-5 of Previous Works
- Coffee table adorned with colors from either or both the LatinX and LGBTQ+ pride flags, symbolizing joy, resilience, and the richness of the LatinX diaspora

NOTE: We are currently sourcing tables for the selected artists. You can contact the LatinX Pride Team if you'd like to help explore other table options (like from Habitat for Humanity).

Questions or submissions: Hola@Latinxpride.co